

Fort Greene & Clinton Hill Teens:

Apply for a paid summer job on Myrtle Avenue!

The Young Entrepreneur Mentorship Program (YEMP) is a 6-week summer internship program for high school students from Fort Greene and Clinton Hill. Students are placed in paid job experiences, and also participate in weekly workshops run by the Pratt Center. These workshops focus on exposure to careers in the fields of tech, design and manufacturing, and provide students with opportunities for hands-on learning, job readiness and design-thinking. Students will participate for a total of 20 hours per week, and will receive $11 per hour for participation in both the internship and the workshops.

Eligibility: You are eligible to participate if you will be a sophomore thru starting first year of college in Fall 2017 and you live or attend school near Myrtle Avenue in Fort Greene or Clinton Hill.

Important Dates:

Internship dates: July 10 – August 18. Most job sites are on Myrtle Avenue. Schedules vary depending on job placement.

Workshop dates: July 10, July 11, July 17, July 18, July 24, July 31, August 8, August 7 and August 14 – 10:00am to 12:30pm. Workshops will take place at Pratt Institute and the Brooklyn Navy Yard and other local sites.

Orientation/Welcome Night for accepted students and parents/guardians: June 28 (time and location TBD)

Student Presentations/Graduation: August 18

Application Deadline: May 26, 2017 (Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis)

*please note that some of the workshop dates and/or locations are subject to change.
