The Afro-Latineers

Through creativity and innovation, the simplicity, yet pure image of the band and its music will bring you energy, happiness, and comfort. Paul Rivera, also known as, “Sabor” and The Afro-Latineers play a fusion of Latin & Jazz music, blending West African rhythms when its least expected.

Their music appeals to audiences of all ages and ethnic backgrounds. The Afro-Latineers specialize in engineering musical genres such as, “Salsa”, Latin Jazz, American Jazz standards and Afrobeat. Influences include the likes of the following artists: Cal Tjader, Mongo Santamaria, Machito & The Afro-Cubans, Stevie Wonder, Bobby Thomas, “Wes” Montgomery & Fela Kuti and other Latin & Jazz pioneers.

Making a name for themselves in Brooklyn, NY, and gradually growing throughout New York City, including Long Island and New Jersey, “Sabor” and the band have performed for non-profit organizations, college institutions, as well as private and corporate events in Hicksville & Valley Stream, Long Island and Jersey City, NJ. Lastly the band has performed for spectators at bars, lounges, restaurants and other multi-cultural locales. Discover more—follow @theafrolatineers #MyMyrtleMoments
