WORLD CUP FUTURE THE WORLD @ MYRTLE AVENUE & MYRTLE! USA CANADA MEXICO & MYRTLE!

Where the World Meets Myrtle!

This summer, in celebration of the global game's biggest tournament, the Myrtle Avenue Brooklyn Partnership is transforming Fort Greene & Clinton Hill into a neighborhood-wide celebration of soccer, culture, art, food, and community. Throughout the tournament, locally-inspired illustrated characters by Clinton Hill-based artist Eugenia Mello will appear in storefront windows, restaurants, bars, and public spaces along Myrtle Avenue — creating a walkable, interactive visual experience for residents and visitors alike.

Tournament Specials

Enjoy special deals and limited-time offers from Myrtle Avenue businesses during the tournament.

Use this Official Fan Guide to discover where to watch matches live, explore storefront exhibitions, find activities and public art, and enjoy specials and promotions from independent Myrtle Avenue businesses all tournament long.

Storefront Exhibitions

Follow the tournament along Myrtle Avenue through a series of storefront installations featuring original illustrated characters by Clinton Hill-based artist Eugenia Mello. Displayed in windows across Fort Greene & Clinton Hill, each character captures a different expression of the global game — from cheering and celebration to movement, play, and neighborhood pride. Together, the installations create a colorful walking route that invites residents and visitors to explore local businesses and experience the tournament through art.
